

Programme Royal Palm Beachcomber Luxury 40th anniversary celebration week

• MONDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2025

On Monday, October 13, the celebrations will begin with a fashion show—an immersive sensory experience—held around the resort's iconic pool at sunset, accompanied by a refined cocktail reception. Designed by former model and fashion designer Sloane Vian, founder of Sloane Mauritius, the event will showcase bold tropical elegance through a collection featuring impeccable cuts, luxurious fabrics, and exclusive prints that celebrate femininity. A perfect blend of luxury, local craftsmanship, and eco-conscious fashion, Sloane Mauritius offers an exclusive experience at its private boutique in Grand Baie, creating bespoke dresses that are co-designed with each client. Made from light, flowing materials, these creations are designed to be as effortlessly elegant for a sunlit day as they are for an evening under the stars.

• WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2025

On Wednesday, October 15, guests will gather on the beach for an evening of Royal Grill. Under the starlit sky, with toes in the sand, they will savour an exquisite buffet of grilled delicacies from land and sea. The night will continue with a Beachcomber signature performance, capturing the beauty of Mauritian culture.

• FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2025

The highlight of the week will undoubtedly be the gastronomic evening on Friday, October 17. A remarkable 10-hand dinner which will bring together Royal Palm's current chefs, William Girard and Pastry Chef Stéphane Baptiste, with three legendary chefs from the hotel: Richard Ekkebus from the three Michelin-starred and Green Michelin-starred Amber at The Landmark Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong, Michel de Matteis, Meilleur Ouvrier de France and Chef L'Étang, Pastry Chef at Royal Palm for two decades. This exclusive dinner will feature timeless Royal Palm classics, delighting guests who return year after year to enjoy these culinary treasures.
